WOOD ON THE STAND

Bosom Friend of Scott Jackson Was Examined.

MRS. BRYAN CROSS-EXAMINED.

Damaging Testimony Offered by Dr. Dick-ore, the Chemist—Mrs. Bryan Tells of Her Daughter's Disposition—Allen Johnson's Evidence Remains Unshaken by Cross-Examination.

NEWPORT, Ky., April 25.—Every available space in the courthouse yesterday was crowded in Scott Jackson's trial. Among the witnesses examined was Will Wood, the friend and correspondent of Jackson, once charged with complicity in the crime, but since released by nolle prosequi. The most interesting witness in the morning was the mother of Pearl Bryan, who was put on the stand to testify to the disposition of her daughter. It is evidently a part of the policy of the prosecution to show the usefulness, trustfulness and inexperience of the murdered girl. Late in the afternoon the defense revealed the part of its policy, while Will Wood was on the stand, which will be to break down the character of that witness by showing that he, by his own confession to persons whose depositions the defense has, was himself improperly intimate with Pearl Bryan.

Dr. Crane's Evidence.
In his testimony in regard to his analysis of the contents of the dead girl's stomach, Dr. Crane showed that he had tested for every possible poison, mineral and vegetable, which could be obtained in Cincinnati, and finding none in the stomach except such as were contained in the embalming fluid, except cocaine.

When asked about the effects of cocaine and of other poisons which have a burning effect, he displayed erudition that amazed the court and counsel.
His cross-examination was very brief.

Expert Testimony.
Much interest attached to the testimony of Dr. Dickore from the fact that he was the man who analyzed the mud and blood found on the trousers belonging to Jackson, and he had not up to this time made the result of his examination public. On direct examination he said that he had a great deal of experience as an analytical chemist. He examined the bloody valise, and was asked to identify the stains. He said the blood was mammalian blood, but he could not say it was human. He examined the trousers worn by Jackson when arrested. He said that he had examined them before, and found blood on the trousers and mud on the knees. He had made a chemical analysis of the mud on the knees. The commonwealth had great difficulty in getting the doctor to testify that he had been to the place where the murdered woman was found.
Numerous objections were made, and sustained by the court on the ground that it was for the state to assume that the woman was murdered. The state finally got the question in by mentioning Pearl Bryan as the "headless body."

The witness said he had been taken to the spot where the body had been found. The mud there and the mud on the knees of the trousers was alike. The witness then identified the coat and cap worn by Jackson. A piece of cloth had been taken from the right knee of Jackson's trousers. The witness testified that he had cut it out and had handed it to Dr. Jacobs, an expert microscopist.
Witness said that the blood stains found on the valise, the trousers and other articles were not inconsistent with human blood. The doctor said he had found no blood on the coat.

Damaging Testimony.
The cross-examination of the negro batterer, Allen Jones Johnson, was continued. He identified the girl's dress and hat as that worn by the young girl brought into the winery by Scott Jackson on the Friday night, Jan. 31, before the dead body was found.

Dave Wallingford, the proprietor of that saloon, was called afterward. His testimony as to the presence and identity of Jackson, Wallingford and Pearl Bryan was continued. He testified that he had seen Jackson on the evening of Jan. 31, corroborated the testimony of Allen Johnson. It did more, it showed that Jackson was there with the girl on Tuesday night, as well as on Friday night, before the murder. Cross-examination instead of weakening his evidence resulted in filling some gaps that the prosecution had forgotten.

Will Wood on the Stand.

A wave of low murmurs ran over the room when Will Wood took the witness stand. He stated the intimacy of his friendship for Scott Jackson during his stay of nearly a year in Greencastle.
He also admitted that he had intrigued Jackson to his second cousin, Pearl Bryan, and that since Jackson's departure last October from Greencastle to Cincinnati, that he had kept up a correspondence with him and that letters from Jackson to him personally were destroyed by him according to Jackson's request. The part of the story already told about the share he took in bringing Pearl Bryan to Cincinnati.

nati, to have a criminal operation performed, he corroborated. He said that Jackson's letters to him in October and November were inquiries about Pearl Bryan's condition, and he repeated the story of the prescription sent by Jackson for the relief of Pearl Bryan, which was never filled.

The most thrilling part of his story was that in which he said that Jackson while visiting Greencastle during the Christmas holiday vacation, went with him to Pearl Bryan's house, got that prescription from her, destroyed it and told Wood it would be dangerous to him if he should get into trouble. Jackson also told Wood that the only remedy now was abortion, that it was safe, that he could do it himself if he had the instruments.

Tells of a Letter From Jackson.

On Jan. 24, 1896, he received a letter from Jackson from Cincinnati requesting Pearl Bryan to come to Cincinnati and be relieved. He showed the letter to Pearl that day. She read it and asked witness: "What would you do if you were me?" Witness answered, "Decide for yourself." The next day, which was Jan. 25, she told Wood she was going to Cincinnati on Monday, Jan. 27. He saw her off on Monday, assisted her on the train, and that was the last he saw of her. In the cross-examination, the questions indicated that the defense had testimony from William J. Grooms of Greencastle, Edward Hunt of Indianapolis, William Levine of Greencastle and Oliver Newhouse, all of Greencastle, showing, in the form of depositions, that Wood had boasted to them of his improper intimacy with Pearl Bryan. This questioning was to lay the foundation for the depositions of these persons in the defense. Wood positively denied every statement of the depositions. Some of the depositions are not fit to appear literally in print.

American Missionary Forbidden to Give Relief.

LONDON, April 25.—A Constantinople dispatch to The Chronicle says: By an order from Stamboul, an American missionary at Hadjia, has been forbidden to give relief. The val there has formally accused him of being the abettor of treason on the ground of the pretended discovery of an insurrectionary plot, in connection with which many young men have been arrested.

There are many threats of a renewal of the massacres at Kharpout. Crowds of Armenians would immigrate to America, but the government refuses its permission.

Typhoid fever is raging all around.

REVOLUTIONARY DOCUMENT.

Promissory Note Found That Was Issued
July 18, 1795.

CHICAGO, April 25.—A paper of great interest to an antiquarian was found by City Librarian Fred Kild while looking through some recent purchases of old books. It was a note for $1,000 payable to the order of Robert Morris and indorsed by the latter. The note read as follows:

July 18, 1795.
Three years after date I promise to pay Robert Morris one thousand dollars for value received, (M. NICHOLSON.)

The note is indorsed on the back by the great financier of the revolutionary times, but bears no marks of cancellation.

Bonded a Railroad.

NASHVILLE, April 25.—Last Wednesday the stockholders of the Nashville and Knoxville railroad held a meeting in Lebanon and decided to bond the road at $15,000 per mile to buy new rolling stock and extend the road to Nashville and from Monterey to a junction with the Cincinnati Southern. If carried into effect this will give Nashville another northern and eastern outlet.

House Devotes the Day and Night to Pension Matters.

ELEVEN PENSIONS ARE GRANTED.

Disposition Is Not Allow Such Large Pensions to Officers as Heretofore—Senate Still on the Civil Appropriation Bill—Atlantic Squadron at Shanghai.
Other Washington News.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Although yesterday was private bill day under the rules, the house decided to proceed with the Pickler pension bill and the whole day was consumed in the discussion of that measure. The debate was devoid of interest. The feature was the opposition of Mr. Connolly to the section of the bill which granted pensions to confederate soldiers who deserted and joined the Union ranks 90 days before Lee's surrender. It is not probable that a vote will be reached before Monday.

PENSION LEGISLATION.

Among the Eleven Bills Passed Was One
For General W. A. Morris.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—At the night session 11 private pension bills were favorably passed upon, including bills giving the widow of Major General Sprigg Carroll a pension of $50 per month and General W. A. Morris $75.
The Morris bill was reported by the committee at $100 per month, but Mr.
Pickler, chairman of the committee, moved to amend by making the rate $75. He explained that there had been considerable comment upon the tendency to give large pensions to officers and officers' widows. He thought the complaint was not without justification and advocated moderation in fixing the amount in such cases.

Squadron Rendezvoused at Shanghai.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Four of the vessels of the Asiatic squadron have rendezvoused at Shanghai preparatory to undertaking the periodical squadron drills and maneuvers required by the naval regulations. The vessels are the Boston, Machias, Yorktown and Detroit.

The flagship Olympia is unable to get up the river as far as Shanghai to join the other vessels of the squadron.

EARLY ADJOURNMENT.

Belief That Congress Will Close as Soon as Appropriations Are Made.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—The fact that such unusual progress was made with the sundry civil appropriation bill in the senate yesterday and that the Democrats manifested no disposition to delay its consideration, has greatly encouraged the Republican senators in the belief that an early adjournment is probable. It is understood that the Democratic leaders have practically agreed that congress shall close as soon as the appropriation bills can be disposed of and that they will make no opposition to their consideration with much dispatch as is consistent with their ideas of the demands of the public business.

They will expect, however, that opportunity shall be grasped for the consideration of one or two measures and among other things will ask that a vote shall be taken upon the resolution to seat Mr.
Dupont as a senator from Delaware.
The Democrats think that in case the resolution is taken on this proposition the resolution will be defeated.

Conference on Appropriation Bills.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—The conference of the two houses on the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill have reached an agreement on the main items of difference in the bill, but will report a further disagreement on others. The principal difference was on the salaries of United States marshals and district attorneys. The senate conferees have yielded most of the increases made on these salaries, but were able to retain some which were Women go on,

the dangers that lie right in the path of their thoughtless-ness. They neglect until they get used to them. The warnings become louder and louder, and still they do not heed them. Their sickness increases
like a snowball
rolling down hill.
The sickness comes on gradually, and they get used to it gradually, but it ruins their lives just the same. One woman in a hundred, perhaps, is perfectly healthy. Sometimes her weakness is inherited, sometimes acquired by careles-ness. In every case, care and Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will give her new life and strength and vitality. It will fill out the hollows in her cheeks, bring color to her lips, brighten her eyes, and make her really and truly a woman. The "Favorite Prescription" is of inestimable value at three stages in the lives of every woman—when the girl becomes a woman, when the woman becomes a mother, and when the mother becomes incapable of maternity. At these times it gives safety and strength. It is the only medicine now before the public for woman's peculiar ailments, adapted to her delicate organization by a regularly graduated physician—an experienced and skilled specialist in these maladies. It cannot do harm in any condition of the system. Its sales exceed the combined sales of all other medicines for women.

Every woman should have and read Dr.
Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a great book of a thousand pages, profusely illustrated which will be sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps, to pay for mailing only. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, No. 663

WASHINGTON, April 25.—The senate

Father Dies in an Asylum—Son a Con-

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 25.—Smith Crabtree, who Thursday tore open his throat while suffering from a fit of insanity, died in the asylum here yesterday. Two months ago Crabtree's little girl was drowned and a few days later a little son was run over by a train. His son Samuel was sentenced to 10 years in the penitentiary for burglary last Wednesday and the parent on the same day lost his mind. His son was sent to the penitentiary by the same train that brought him to the asylum. The other members of his family are in destitute circumstances.

"Coin" Harvey Weakened.

OMAHA, April 25.—"Coin" Harvey lectured in Omaha last night under the auspices of the Bimetallite League of Nebraska. He announced the press of the state as subsidized organs of the money power. Editor Rosewater of The Bee was in the audience and resented the institutions, and after defending the press, challenged Harvey to a discussion of finance. Harvey was considerably disturbed and finally declined.
The affair created considerable excitement.

Anderson made a statement on the gal-

THE BEST SPRING MEDICINE

THE SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR—don't forget to take it. The liver gets sluggish during the winter, just like all nature, and the system becomes choked up by the accumulated waste, which brings on malaria, fever and ague and rheumatism. You want to wake up your liver now, but be sure you take SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR to do it. It also regulates the liver—keeps it properly at work, when your system will be free from poison and the whole body invigorated. You get THE BEST BLOOD when your system is in Al condition, and that will only be when the liver is kept active. Try a Liver Remedy once and note the difference. But take only SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR—it is SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR which makes the difference. Take it in powder or in liquid already prepared, or make a tea of the powder; but take SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR. You'll find the RED Z on every package. Look for it.

Official Call.

Headquarters Republican State Committee, Indianapolis, Feb. 1, 1896.
At the meeting and re-organization of the republican state committee, Jan. 28, it was decided to hold the state convention in Indianapolis, on Thursday, May 7, 1896. It was also decided that the four delegates and four alternate delegates at-large to the national republican convention, and two electors-at-large, be elected by the state convention, and that the selection of such delegates, alternates and electors be made first in the order of business in the convention.
Also, the following state officers: governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, auditor of state, treasurer of state, attorney general, reporter of the supreme court, superintendent of public instruction, state statistician and five judges of the appellate court.
The basis of representation to the state convention was fixed at one delegate for each two hundred votes or fraction of one hundred or over cast for W. D. Owen, for secretary of state.

JOHN K. GOWDY, Chairman,
ROBERT E. MANSFIELD, Sec.

THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

The following plank in the National Republican platform adopted at the convention held at Minneapolis, Minn., in 1892, on the silver question, is good enough for any true American to stand upon, it seems to us:
The American people, from tradition and interest, favor bimetallism, and the Republican party demands the use of both gold and silver as standard money, with such restrictions and under such provisions, to be determined by legislation, as will secure a maintenance of the parity of value of the two metals, so that the purchasing and debt-paying power of the dollar, whether of silver, gold or paper, shall be at all times equal. The interests of the producers of the country, its farmers and its workmen, demand that every dollar, paper or issued by the government shall be as good as any other. We commend the wise and patriotic step already taken by our government to secure an international conference to adopt measures which will insure a parity of value between gold and silver for use as money throughout the world.

Keep in mind the city election, May 5. The interests of the city demand that the republican party be retained in power.

In the state conventions already held, no such dissension is seen on the money question in the republican party as is seen among the democrats.

THE trial of Scott Jackson at Newport, Kentucky, is attracting widespread attention. The average newspaper reader will probably spend more time reading the proceedings of the trial than will be profitable.

In a recent lecture Carroll D. Wright, United States Commissioner of Labor, said that the Southern States are forty times as rich in mineral wealth as England. The fact that England is now importing pig iron from Alabama shows that the natural advantages of the South are beginning to tell.

The best politicians in the republican party live in southern Indiana. The reason for it, I believe, is this: Only a few years ago there was no chance in the world for a republican to get office down in our section and those of weak faith, deserted the party. Only the strong were left and they have worked until it is possible and even probable for a republican in southern Indiana to get office.—Aurora Independent.

"Tried by any test, measured by any standard, we lead all the rest of the world. Protection has vindicated itself. It cannot be helped by eulogy or hurt by defamation. It has worked out its own demonstration, and presents in the sight of the whole world its matchless trophies. It can not be cried down by false names or injured by offensive epithets, nor can it any longer suffer from falsehood or the forebodings of the false prophet. It has triumphed over all its traducers at home and abroad. It has made the lives of the masses of our countrymen sweeter and brighter, and has entered the homes of America, carrying comfort and cheer and courage. It gives a premium to human energy and awakens the noblest aspirations in the breasts of men. Our own experience shows that it is best for our citizenship and our civilization, and opens up a higher and better destiny for our people. The day of repentance will come when we shall have made a change."—William McKinley, at Beatrice, Nebraska, August 2, 1892.

GREAT BRITAIN is financially prosperous. At least the government reports a surplus. In the House of Commons the Chancellor of the Exchequer, Sir Michael Hicks Beach, made the budget statement. He spoke of last year as a wonderful year, and one of unexampled revenue in spite of the fact that the expenditures had been the largest since the great war. The surplus was the largest ever known, and a larger sum was devoted to the reduction of the national debt than ever known. The condition of the working classes, he continued, judging from the consumption of tea, tobacco and sugar, had materially improved, and it was a remarkable fact that, while the decrease in the exports and imports for the first six months amounted to £7,531,000, the increase for the second half of the year amounted to £28,228,000. This is the result of vicious democratic tariff legislation. It is a splendid thing for the English workingman, but what about his brother toiler in this country.

EX-SUPREME JUDGE McBRIDE recently made the following truthful statement in an address before the Theosophic Society at Indianapolis: "Personally I think that any officer who does not uphold the law which he has sworn to maintain, is a perjured villain and a scoundrel. It is a duty which the officer owes to society to see that the law as long as it is on the books enforced to the letter. Those who condemn men for upholding the law should think for an instant that it is only because of this regard for duty that they are permitted to go to bed at night with a feeling of security, and that their right of person and property respected. If I am to be allowed to say that this law shall not be enforced, every man would have the same right to declare that particular laws which are obnoxious to them shall not be obeyed."

THE business that comes before the city council month after month is such as demands the best business talent which Seymour can afford. No one thing is of great importance, but the careful attention to each small matter of business when it comes up is what keeps our city in good condition. Remember that under republican administration all these items have received careful attention and then vote to retain that party in power.

It is surprising to note the extent of the discussion in the press and the popular feeling for the restoration reciprocal treaties with other countries. One of the most foolish of the many foolish mistakes made by the Democratic repeal of the McKinley law was the abolishment of the reciprocity treaties negotiated with European and South American countries. These treaties were the outcome of long effort to secure them. Some of the foreign countries entered into them reluctantly only because they were forced to do it in order to secure like favors from the United States. The treaties were in force long enough to demonstrate their great advantage to this country, and the clamor for their renewal comes not from republicans alone, but from citizens of all political faiths. Boards of trade and commercial exchanges are taking action in the matter, and it is so clearly a pure business proposition that reciprocity is sure to be a part of the national policy in the future.—Hawkeye, Burlington, Iowa.

A Woman's Nerves.

THE STORY OF A WOMAN TO WHOM NOISE WAS TORTURE.
Prostrated by the Least Excitement—Physicians Halted by Her Case.
(From the Gate City, Keokuk, Iowa.)
Mrs. Helen Meyers whose home is at 3515 Vernon Avenue, Chicago, and whose visit to Keokuk, Ia., will long be remembered, was at one time afflicted with a nervous malady which at times drove her nearly to distraction. "Those terrible headaches are a thing of the past," she said the other day to a Gate City representative, "and there is quite a story in connection with it too."

My nervous system sustained a great shock some fifteen years ago, brought on I believe through too much worrying over family matters and then allowing my love for my books to get the better of my discretion where my health was concerned. Why, whenever my affairs at home did not go along just as I expected, I would invariably become prostrated from the excitement and I would consider myself fortunate indeed if the effects of the attack would not remain for a week. I was obliged to give up my place in the bank not far from the Lake shore drive, because I could not stand the noise in that locality. I could find no place in the city which I deemed suitable to one whose nervous system was always on edge. This woman had been cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I thought that if Pink Pills cured that woman they might do the same for me. I began to take the pills according to directions and I began to feel better from the start. After I had taken several boxes of them I was ready to go back to Chicago. My nervousness was gone and my complexion was as fresh as that of any sixteen-year-old girl in Iowa. This woman is what you call a good place for one in my pitiable condition. I picked up the Gate City one day and happened to come across an interesting recital of the recovery of some woman in New York State from a similar ailment. ## STAGE GLINTS.

Amy Busby will play the heroine in William Gillette's new war play, "Secret Service."

It is said that Clyde Fitch has sold a play to Carrie Turner and that she will produce it next season.

Alice Hosmer originated the part of a Spanish princess in De Wolf Hopper's production of "El Capitán."

Thomas Nelson Page, the writer of southern stories, is at work upon a dramatization of his novel "Polly."

Charles A. Pusey has secured a half interest in Samuel Speck's operetta, seven in all, and will put them on the stage.

Thomas E. Murray, formerly of Murray and Murphy, has made a success in England. He is retained for the next Christmas pantomime at Islington.

Sol Smith Russell is said to be meditating a revival of "Katharine and Petruchio" for next season—a rather radical departure from his present style of work.

Charles Frohman has released Adrienne Dailloles for the rest of the season in order that she may join Beecham Tree's Haymarket Theater company in London.

The Players' club of New York has presented a portrait of Edwin Booth, its founder, in the character of Hamlet to the town of Stratford, Shakespeare's birthplace.

A war drama entitled "Stonewall," by James K. Collier, was produced at Wilmington, N. C., by the Langdon Dramatic company, under direction of the author.

William Carter, author of the opera "The Patriots," has placed his new melodrama for fall production in the east, and is now at Danbury, O., writing an operatic extravaganza.

The shortest engagement on record was Daniel Frohman's management of Mr. Mansfield. The latter says that the manager wanted him to sign a new contract. Mr. Frohman says this was not the fact.

THE FASHION PLATE.

White satin and silk are made into collars, corollaries and cuffs to wear with thin dresses.

Corallaries and fronts of green taffeta are much admired and will be worn with dresses of almost all summer materials.

Heliotrope and orange is a new combination. It is just tolerable if the proper shades are placed together. If not, it is atrocious.

Skirts of lawn and dimity and organdie are made up with ruffles trimmed with narrow valenciennes lace, with a scalloped edge.

A girl's hat has a wide brim, peaked over the front and faced with velvet. The Tam O'Shanter crown is of velvet, and there are loops and quill feathers at the side.

Bright green is to be one of the popular colors of the season. It is specially liked, with the new linens and dimities, which are among the most desirable of the coming warm weather dresses.

A dressy afternoon costume is made of white Irish poplin. It has the usual full, gored skirt and a waist fitted at the sides and back, and with entire front and very full sleeves of crepon. The collar, shoulder seams, front and division between the puffs of the sleeves are trimmed with gold galloon.

The sleeves of the most stylish dresses drop from the shoulders and have more fullness at the elbows than at any point above. To let us down very gradually, however, from the shoulder fullness, there are full ruffles, like the eaves of a house, that project out over the tops of the collapsed sleeves. —New York Ledger.

TURF TOPICS.

Mulatt, 2:21, will be trained this year again.

Jockey Joe Choon can no longer get down to 107 pounds.

Santiago, owned by Lucky Baldwin, has been retired to the stud.

Abdallah Mambrino, one of the most noted sons of Almont, is dead.

The pacing mare Effie Powers, 2:10 1/2, will be campaigned again this season.

Miss Nelson, 2:12 1/2, is being jogged on the roads around Lexington, Ky., by her trainer, Richard Curtis.

Engine Leigh is quoted as saying that he will ship all of his big string of horses east at the close of the Louisville meet.

Race track correspondents of English papers state that Mr. Croker's Montauk is going on well in his preparation for the Derby.

The great pacing stallion Direct, 2:05 1/2, is now housed in a $5,000 barn. The barn contains but three stalls and is isolated from the others.

At New Orleans recently Julius Hayman sold his well known geldings—Chattanooga to C. Young for $550 and Longdale to S. Levy for $150.

Frank Craig, the colored pugilist, stands godfather for one of the yearlings in the Baron Hirsch stable, the youngster having received the name of "Coffee Cooler."

GEMS OF THOUGHT.

It is by studying little things that we attain the great art of having as little misery and as much happiness as possible. —Johnson.

Certain thoughts are prayers. There are moments when, whatever be the attitude of the body, the soul is on its knees. —Hugo.

Those whose whole minds feed upon riches recede in general from real happiness in proportion as their stores increase. —Burton.

Trust God for great things. With your five loaves and two fishes he will show you a way to feed thousands. —Horace Bushnell.

The working people of the country are suffering cruelly because a party which professes to be devoted to them first adopted a tariff which cut down their pay, and then followed that up by a financial policy, or lack of a policy, which keeps them from going to work under that tariff. —Chicago Tribune.

ENDS IN DISAGREEMENT.

Miners and Operators Failed to Reach Amicable Terms.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., April 24.—The conference between the miners and the Indiana block coal operators has ended in disagreement. The miners' convention appointed a committee to confer with a similar committee from the operators' organization. The committee ended their conference yesterday. The miners committee at first demanded 66 cents a ton, while the operators wanted to cut the present scale, which expires May 1, to 55 cents. After much discussion the miners agreed to accept 61 cents, but the operators' committee refused to go above 55 cents. The miners' committee returned back to the convention, which adjourned without further action.

The result will be, miners say, a strike which will begin May 1, and will affect 6,000 men. At the Diamond mine in Clay county there are now 600 men on a strike because of local differences and the Ehrmann company's mines are idle from similar causes. The operators insist that the demands of the miners will be increased, and no discrimination in shipping rates is made by one or two companies.

False Alarm of Fire.

ANDERSON, Ind., April 24.—At the high school yesterday a false alarm of fire caused a stampede among the pupils in the halls. The Misses Kate Chipman and Hedrick were injured, but not fatally.

Poorhouse Contract Awarded.

SULLIVAN, Ind., April 24.—The contract for building the new county poorhouse was awarded yesterday to George T. Briggs of this place. His bid was $18,000.

COATES CONFESSES.

He Tells an Acquaintance How He "Fixed" Mr. Lawrence.

HOLLAND, Mich., April 24.—Coates and Mrs. Lawrence were brought back here yesterday. They waived examination and were bound over to the circuit court for trial and were taken to the county jail at Grand Haven. While at the jail here Coates confessed to an acquaintance that he had committed the murder, but remarked that it was too late to be sorry. He says he crept down stairs when Lawrence was asleep and then "fixed him." He said he carried Lawrence's body to the bridge with a horse and sulky and threw it from the bridge into the river. He stated that when he should have a chance to talk to the city marshal alone he would tell him all about it. Coates admits that he is a brother of Mrs. Lawrence, but the latter says Coates was only an adopted child. He was very nervous and it is believed he will break down. Mrs. Lawrence is quite composed.

Cargo of Burning Cotton Saved.

NEWCASTLE-ON-TYNE, April 24.—The British steamer Willowdene, Captain Trippett, from Charleston on April 3 for St. Petersburg, has arrived on the Tyne. She had her cargo of cotton on fire, but the flames have since been quenched.

Good Prices for Horses.

WILMERS, Ky., April 24.—Twelve horses were sold here yesterday, Adams for $625, Causeman and Ixion for $500 each.

WEIGHT POSSIBILITIES OF CARP.

If Well Fed and Treated, They Attain to Enormous Size.

Big fish chronicles are always interesting. Attention is just now being bestowed upon the weight possibilities of carp. These fish are notoriously long lived, and provided they are not caught before they have had a chance of living long, and provided again, they have few enemies and sollicitous keepers to supplement their natural food supply regularly, it is only natural that they should grow to a relatively great size. Under normal conditions, of course, they do not exceed a few pounds, and as it is the normal conditions that prevail, discussion of what they might attain may be regarded by not a few as something of a futility. Still, they are sometimes placed in peculiarly favorable circumstances, and, as the question is really concerned with what weight they can reach, it is not such a futility after all.

We must go abroad for the biggest carp of which angling history has to tell. In a private pond in Saxony there used to be a pair of breeding carp whose united weight in Saxony measure (7 per cent heavier than English) reached 91 pounds. The male was 43 pounds and the female 48 pounds. By good living and attention they never exceeded this. In 11 years the male put on 9 pounds and the female 12 pounds. The pond which afforded a home for these creatures was a famous one. In one year 4,000 pounds of carp were taken from it—say nothing of trout and jack. In this same pond—which, by the way, covered 17 acres—the proprietor had lost several carp for breeding. Five of these weighed 103 pounds, Saxons, and the largest of the five, a Spiegel carp, aged 16 years, drew in the scale 31 1/2 pounds English. The age of the two first alluded to could not be estimated. They were on the estate when it was purchased from another family, 50 years before.

We have never to our personal knowledge known a carp that exceeded 22 pounds to be caught in English waters. A brace which weighed 35 pounds was once presented to the late Lord Egremont. A curious thing about these big fish is their tameness. Mr. Pennell tells us he has seen carp in the garden ponds of Rotterdam eagerly following visitors about to be fed, with an immense fellow, with a side as broad as a fitch of bacon, and an appetite that seemed insatiable, actually pursued him for nearly 100 yards along the side of the bank until his stock of bread had run out.

This fish, he adds, must have weighed 15 pounds. Their rate of growth has been approximately computed to be 3 pounds during the first six years and 6 pounds before the tenth year. —Pall Mall Gazette.

An Affidavit.

This is to certify that on May 11th, I walked to Melick's drug store on a pair of crutches and bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm for inflammatory rheumatism which had crippled me up. After using three bottles I am completely cured. I can cheerfully recommend it. —Charles H. Wetzel, Sunbury, Pa. Sworn and subscribed to before me on August 10, 1904 —Walter Shipman, J. P. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by C. W. Millhouse, The Druggist.

A Plain Accident.

A friend of mine disappeared for three or four days recently, and when he made his reappearance he was horribly scratched and cut about the throat and face.

"Come in contact with a vigilance committee?" asked one of his acquaintances.

"No, not quite."

"Been trying to cut your throat with a garden rake?"

"No, not that either."

"Maybe you lost your razor and tried to cut your whiskers off with concentrated lye?"

"No—bicycle. Ran over a dog, shoved my leg through a wheel and my head through a barbed wire fence." —San Francisco Post.

His Only Explanation.

"I see you charge me 11 pence for mutton, Mr. Barton. Why is it Mr. Read in High street lets me have it for 10 pence?"

"I'm sure, m'm, I couldn't say, unless it's he's taken a fancy to you, m'm!" —Punch.

Leaving Him to His Fate.

"John," she said, "there's a burglar trying to get in the house."

"Is there?" was the uninterested reply.

"Yes. Aren't you going to do something about it?"

"No, Maria. I'm a humane man, but if that fellow falls over Johnny's tin wagon and steps into a toy drum and gets frightened by treading on a rubber doll that says 'papa' and barks his shin the same as I did when I came here in the dark tonight, it'll be all his own fault. I don't feel called on to interfere with my advice or to offer a helping hand, for it won't be a deserving case." —Washington Star.

The Button Was On.

"Aha!" and he laughed fiendishly as he read from the morning paper, "The burglar shot at the man, whose life was saved by the bullet striking against a button of his clothes!"

"Well," snapped his spouse, "what of that?"

"What of that?" said he as he felt his collar going up steadily to the nape of his neck. "Oh, nothing, except that the button must have been on!" —New York World.

One Kind of Journalism.

Managing Editor—Telegraph Senator Spray and get his opinion on our great newspaper and the great reforms it has wrought of late.

Assistant Editor—But we will have an article in tomorrow calling him a horse thief, a liar and a forger!

Managing Editor—Never mind—postpone the article until the next day.—Truth.

No Deception.

"I will not deceive you," faltered the man accused of killing his wife and children. "I am innocent."

He sobbed aloud, while the sweet young girl with the violets passed to the next cell, where was confined the confessed murderer of his great grandmother. —Detroit Tribune.

Not an Intimidator.

Mrs. Greymare—The clock has stopped. I want you to take it to the jeweler's in the morning.

Mr. Greymare—Mebbe I can fix it myself.

"You? As if you could make anything run!" —Cincinnati Enquirer.

Too Late.

Hiram Hayrick—Well, b'gosh, them bunko fellows in Italy didn't get my money this time.

Squire Oatcake—I want ter know.

SANTA CLAUS SOAP

makes wash-day as easy as any other day. Lessens the labor, makes the clothes white, and does no damage. Thousands of women say so—surely they are not all mistaken. Sold everywhere. Made only by The N. K. Fairbank Company, - Chicago.

The Georgia Southern & Florida Railway, which is the only direct through route to the capital of the colony, connecting at 11:00 a. m. with the Tidewater & North Eastern Railroad for Annapolis. By this route passengers can secure sleepers with only one change (in Depot at Annapolis) to Tidewater. The section in which the railway is located has been well named for it is located in the great peach and apple belt of the world, while peaches, grapes and apples are equal to any in the South. The soil is richly cultivated and produces fine Corn, Oats, Rice, Barley, Cotton, sugar, and other crops. The climate is mild and healthful. Lands conveniently located for planting are offered for sale at $100 per acre, on liberal terms. For illustrated pamphlet, map, land lists, time tables, etc., write to:

Where Disease Is Bred.

When a sewer is clogged or choked up the accumulations poison the atmosphere in its vicinity and bring about the conditions that breed disease. We all know that in time of pestilence every precaution is taken, not only to keep the sewers free and open, but even to remove all decaying matter from the community. The danger of infection is thus minimized. How few of us who pay taxes for the maintenance of sanitary bureaus for the public health think of an equal requirement for our individual welfare. The alimentary canal is the great sewer of the human system. When that is clogged up with indigestion and constipation is a clogging of the natural drains, and nearly everything we suffer from follows this condition. It will not do merely to clear the drains from time to time. We must repair and improve the working power of the machinery whose function it is to perform this work.

Bile Beans differ from pills in that they are more than a mere cathartic. They not only stimulate sluggish bowels and clear the system of all disease-breeding matter, but they remedy the evil consequences of constipation by power and freedom of operation to the secreting organs, and they tone up and strengthen the entire system. Try them. 25 cts. a bottle, 5 bottles, $1.00. For sale by druggists and medicine dealers throughout the country, or by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price. Ask for the "Small Size" (grocery wrapper or cartons).

Take No Substitute for Bile Beans.
